

We Belong to Him

Set-up: Woody a toy cowboy has some bad news for his friend, Buzz Lightyear. Buzz an astronaut, is only a toy.

Synopsis of the scene (show and tell): Early in the movie Woody shouts, "You're not a space ranger! You're an action figure--a child's plaything."

Only after failing to fly, Buzz realizes the truth to Woody's statement. Grief-stricken and disillusioned, Buzz hangs his head in resignation, declaring, "I'm just a stupid, little, insignificant toy."

Woody seeks to comfort his friend by underscoring the love of the boy who owns them both. "You must not be thinking clearly. Look, over in that house, there's a kid who thinks you're the greatest, and it's not because you're a space ranger; it's because you're his."

As Buzz lifts his foot, he sees a label affixed to the bottom of his boot. There in black permanent ink is the name of the little boy to whom he belongs. Seeing the mark of his owner, Buzz breaks into a smile and takes on a new determination.

Concluding statement: We are not our own, Scripture tells us. We are bought with a price, bought by Jesus. We are His. The value of our lives is not determined by our rank, our heroic action, or our accomplishments. Our value is determined by the One who has marked us – with His own blood – as His own.

"Ye belong to Christ" – Mark 9:41
